

FAMILY IMMIGRATION RESOURCE TOOLKIT

OPENING REMARKS

Dear Families,

We understand that this is a challenging and uncertain time, and navigating it can feel overwhelming. We want to remind you that you are not alone—lean on your community for support and strength. The most important thing you can do right now is to create an emergency plan with your family and make copies of that emergency plan. Share this plan with those closest to you as a precaution. Additionally, please ensure that all of your emergency contact forms at schools are up to date and accurate. We are in this with you, and we are here to help every step of the way.

With care and support,
Luma

BEFORE AN ARREST

DEVELOP AN EMERGENCY RESPONSE PLAN

Keep all of your important documents in an easily accessible place. Make copies of these documents for a family member or close friend to keep in case of emergency.

- Passport
- Birth Certificate
- Marriage License
- Car Titles and Property Deeds
- All immigration documents, including "A" number if you have one

Speak with a trusted immigration attorney to assess your individual immigration situation.

- Always have the number or card of a respected legal service provider or immigration attorney in case of emergency. (We have provided a list at the end of the toolkit, if you do not have one.)
- Your family should also have these numbers. Memorize that family member's number.

Have an emergency plan at your place of work.

- Ask if your coworkers are willing to stay silent.
- Ask to speak with an attorney in the event that immigration comes to your workplace.
- If your workplace has a union, speak with the union representative to better learn how to prepare in case immigration comes to your workplace.

Have a plan to protect your family.

- Prepare a "Power of Attorney" form to ensure the proper care of your children with a relative or family friend in case you are detained or deported. Please note, this should be a citizen or permanent U.S. resident.
- Obtain a valid passport for your children.
- If your child is a citizen of the United States, obtain a passport for them as soon as possible. They will need this to travel outside of the country and prove citizenship later.
- If your child is not a citizen of the U.S., obtain a passport from their country of citizenship. You can get this from your country's consulate.
- Register your child as a citizen of your country at that country's consulate so you do not have problems there once you arrive.
- For example, in some countries, children that are not registered cannot attend school.

DURING AN ARREST

WHAT TO DO DURING AN ARREST

What to do if police or an immigration agents question you:

You have the right to ask if you are being detained or arrested.

- If the officer says “No, you are not under arrest or being detained”, ask them if you are free to leave. If they say yes, slowly and calmly walk away.
- If the officer says “Yes, you are under arrest and/or being detained”, then YOU HAVE THE RIGHT TO REMAIN SILENT!

If you have valid documents:

- Always carry them with you.
- Show them to the officer.

If you do not have valid documents to be in this country:

- Do not answer any questions.
- Do not show false documents.
- Only say “I need to speak with my attorney.”
- Do not say anything about where you are from or how you came to this country.
- Show the officer the “Know Your Rights” red card

DO NOT SHOW FALSE DOCUMENTS AND DO NOT SAY ANYTHING THAT IS NOT TRUE!

WHAT TO DO IF IMMIGRATION COMES TO YOUR HOUSE

If the police, immigration agent, or other government agent tries to enter your house:

- Don't open the door.
 - It is very important to ask them if they are the police or immigration. (Sometimes, immigration agents will say they are the police, so ask them very specific questions.)
- If it is an immigration agent/officer, they are usually not allowed to enter unless you open the door or give them permission to enter.
 - Talk through the door. If you open the door a small amount to talk, the agent might say that by opening the door you gave consent to enter.
- If it is the police, they need a "Search Warrant" to enter your house.
 - A search warrant is a signed paper by a judge that authorizes the officer to enter your house.
 - The warrant should say in detail who the person is that the officer is looking for
 - If they have an arrest warrant but not a search warrant, they are not legally able to enter your house.
- If an officer enters your home:
 - Write down the names and badge numbers of the officers
 - Tell them that you have not given them consent for a search
 - Take down the names, address, and numbers of anyone who is present
- Do not run – it is not safe to run.

WHAT TO DO IF IMMIGRATION COMES TO YOUR WORKPLACE

- Stay Calm.
 - Do not run.
 - It is not safe to run.
- In order to enter your workplace, the officer must have a warrant from a judge or permission from your employer.

WHAT TO DO IF IMMIGRATION STOPS YOU IN PUBLIC

- If they stop you in the street:
 - They should have a proper order/warrant to do so; ask to see it.
 - If they don't have an order, they must have specific facts that make it reasonable to believe that you are not in this country legally.

REMINDER:

You have the right to remain silent.

Do not say anything about your immigration status or where you were born.

If you have valid immigration documents, show them.

IF YOU ARE ARRESTED

How long can the local government detain a person with a detention order from ICE?

According to federal regulations, a person detained pursuant to an immigration detainer cannot be held for more than 48 hours, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays. The 48 hour period starts to run after the local or state police would have released that person from their custody for any underlying offense.

What happens once the 48 hours has passed?

Because an ICE detainer only allows for an individual to be detained for 48 hours beyond what is permitted by state or local law, the detained individual should be immediately released after the 48-hour period has ended. After this period, you and/or your attorney should ask that you be released if you are not released automatically.

What happens if the jail continues to detain a person when the order has expired?

If the jail does not have independent authority to detain a person based on criminal charges, it is illegal for them to continue to detain that person after the immigration detainer has expired. Contact an attorney if this has occurred.

NOTE about BONDS:

The 48-hours ICE has to pick up a detained individual under an immigration detainer begins to run either once the individual pays the bond for an underlying criminal charge or otherwise would have been released from state custody. So it is possible that ICE can still pick that individual up after they have paid the local/state bond, and that the time in immigration custody will not count towards a sentence. If possible, consult with an attorney as soon as possible after being detained to talk about whether it is a good strategy to pay the local bond. Don't take advice from clerks or jail staff about this.

YOUR RIGHTS WHILE IN DETENTION

YOU HAVE THE RIGHT:

- ✓ Not to sign declarations or documents, particularly the ones you do not understand
 - Especially those that give up your right to a hearing before a judge.
 - You can say that you would like to speak with a lawyer before signing.

- ✓ Not to offer information about your immigration status
 - What you say can be used against you later in Immigration Court.

- ✓ To contact your consulate

- ✓ To make a call after you have been detained
 - Memorize the number of your lawyer or a family member.
 - Call them immediately.

- ✓ To ask for a bond
 - You always should ask for bond or a bond hearing.

- ✓ To have an interpreter at your hearing if you do not speak English
